

Spencer Strausbaugh - Spencer is a senior consultant that has been performing penetration test on behalf of Protiviti for over 5 years. He has (legally) hacked companies across multiple industries including Healthcare, Hospitality, Retail, Transportation, Finance and Insurance. In his free time, Spencer enjoys gaming and teaching young kids about the fun of computers.

Teddy Guzek, OSCP – Teddy is a senior consultant in Protiviti’s Technology Consulting practice specializing in technical security assessments. He has performed dozens of network and application penetration tests, configuration reviews, phishing campaigns, and red team engagements. Utilizing his OSCP certification, Teddy is excited to continue to identify security holes in complex networks around the world.
