

Frank Mautino is the Auditor General for the State of Illinois. Auditor General Mautino was appointed to a ten year term, effective January 1, 2016. Prior to his appointment as Auditor General, he was a member of the Illinois House of Representatives, and served as a co-chairman of the Legislative Audit Commission. As a constitutional officer, the Auditor General audits public funds of the State and reports findings and recommendations to the General Assembly and to the Governor.

Kathy Lovejoy, CPA, CISA, is the Principal of IS Audits for the Illinois Office of the Auditor General. Her areas of responsibility include managing financial audits, attestation examinations and overseeing the Office's Information Systems reviews of Illinois government agencies. Kathy has over 25 years of experience of auditing governmental entities and is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the Information Systems Audit and Control Association.

Dan Nugent, CPA, has worked on financial audits, Single Audits, and attestation engagements for the State's Auditor General for the past 13 years. Dan serves as the Office's Technical Assistant whereby he researches, reviews, trains and advises the Office on current and proposed authoritative literature. Additionally, he has taught Governmental and Nonprofit Accounting, Commercial Law I, and Commercial Law II at the University of Illinois Springfield for the past five years and is the immediate past Chair of the Illinois CPA Society's Governmental Executive Committee. He has an undergraduate degree in Agribusiness, Farm, and Financial Management from the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign, a Master of Accounting Science degree from the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign, and a Juris Doctorate from the former John Marshall Law School in Chicago, now the University of Illinois Chicago School of Law.