

Patricia McConnell

Patricia McConnell retired as the Director of Investigations for the Executive Inspector General for the Attorney General. Previously, she served 27 years as a Sergeant with the Winnetka Police Department where she was a member of a regional SWAT team, and a Supervisor with the North regional Major Crimes Task Force. Patricia is a graduate of the Northwestern University Center for Public Safety School of Police Staff and Command, and the Executive Management Program. She resides with her husband, Matthew, in the north suburbs of Chicago.